Involve your fans' group, NGO or initiative in the FARE Action Week and get the support of up to € 1.000,- for your activity against racism and discrimination!

We are football people 16 – 31 October 2012

The previous 12 editions of the annual FARE Action Weeks against Racism and Discrimination have proved to be highly successful anti-discrimination interventions aimed at fighting racism in European football stadiums. The call proposes to develop innovative and creative methods addressing mainly young supporters aged between 12-18 years.

Who can apply?

Any legally constituted organisation, which is a fan group, youth organisation, NGO, amateur football team, migrant & ethnic minority organisations etc. may apply. Only entities from EU countries are eligible due to the co-financing of the European Commission. Applications from eligible organisations applying in partnership with other eligible organisations working with the target group are particularly welcomed.

What can be supported?

Anti-racism, anti-discrimination or anti-homophobia activities where there is a clear aim to:

- Improve or enhance the fight against discrimination or exclusion of young fans between 12 and 18 in their club or their city
- Organise a 'mini-project' challenging racism and discrimination at the club or in the city

When?

Apply until 21 September.
