Newsletter II | May 2012

It's May! The weather is getting stable, sun's out but not too hot - the perfect time to get out, and play football or even organize small tournaments. So does Football for Equality project partner SPOLINT: this weekend they organize a tournament in Ljubljana. More about that and what had already happened below!

Touring Exhibition “Against the Rules – Lesbians and Gays in Sport” in Ljubljana SPOLINT to be the first partner to show the exhibition in the course of the Football for Equality project

Until June 2013 the exhibition “Against the Rules – Lesbians and Gays in Sport”, initiated by the German Klaus Sator will stop over in several places throughout Europe. It deals with and makes visible the (hi)stories of discrimination against LGBTIQs in sports but also the various ways of self empowerment and self organisation which aim at making sport a tolerant place, where acceptance and Fairplay is part of the game.

In Ljubljana the exhibition is on until 17th May in the Faculty of Sport: Fakulteta za šport, Gortanova 21, Ljubljana (Big Hall)

More information on the exhibition under Football for Equality touring Exhibition

Exact dates for the further exhibition venues will be announced - so watch out for it!

Football Family Rules - Tournament! Nogometna Družina Je Zakon! On Sunday, May 13th at the NK Svoboda, Gerbičeva 61, SI-1000 Ljubljana, Slovenia

12 teams (5-a-side) amongst others from Italy, Hungary, Austria participate at the tournament which is meant to raise awareness on homophobia in sport and strengthen the knowledge on that topic in Slovenia.
Come along, play, celebrate and act up against discrimination!
